Islamia College Peshawar

Islamia College Peshawar (ICP), a public sector university, is a dynamic movement of enlightenment since 1913. As an icon of Islamic values, oriental culture and academic excellence, it is the pioneer educational institution in the northern parts of Pakistan.

University of Peshawar

University of Peshawar (UoP), is an outcome of the dream of the father of the nation and was created as the first ever University after independence. It is vigorously working with its full zeal and spirit, truly serving as sacred cause of education and research. The University has an over whelming contribution in bringing positive changes in the society.

About Conference

The Conference is jointly organized by Islamia College Peshawar (ICP) and University of Peshawar (UoP). Focus of the conference is to collect the wisdom of academia and field Botanists. It will provide a forum to enhance collaboration and share ideas for the emerging changes in plant sciences. This conference consists of plenary lectures on different aspects of plant sciences and open discussions for coming up with concrete recommendations.
